

German and international development cooperation Projects in Sudan

Description: The German and international development cooperation intensively supports livelihoods and the improvement of basic living conditions in the urban regions in the Sudan. We visualize backgrounds, potentials, all day life and challenges of the development cooperation, referring to examples and experiences from projects in Sudan.

Objectives:

- Learn about the German and international development cooperation
- Recognize the complexity and systematics of development projects
- Get to know the „do no harm“ approach
- Strengthen the capacity of critical/constructive reflection
- Exercise the change of perspectives and increase analytical skills

Participants:

- Pupils and students of intermediate and upper grade
- Teachers
- Interested adults

Methods:

- Interactive photo presentation
- Short presentation about the German and international development cooperation
- Experimental planning
- Group discussions
- Evaluation and transfer exercises

Timeframe: 2 working units with 90-120 minutes each

